FamilyVoice says Vote Wisely: Consider a Biblical Worldview in Saturday's Upper House Elections

All Candidates in Tasmania's upper house elections every year in May are encouraged to promote Godly government if elected.

As voters in three Tasmanian Legislative Council seats go to the polls on May 7, they are reminded that elected representatives will serve for the next six years highlighting the need to 'Vote Wisely'.

"FamilyVoice is urging all voters to cast their vote according to their Christian conscience when considering the candidates standing for election. It is important that candidates reflect the views of majority of the electorate which is pro-life, family oriented and faith-based," said Greg Bondar, FamilyVoice spokesman.

FamilyVoice is a Christian-based non-denominational and non-party political national organisation.
