No Blokes in Women's Sport

KAP leader Robbie Katter introduced a motion into Qld State Parliament to save women's sport, from men wanting to compete as women.

FamilyVoice congratulates Robbie Katter on this welcome move. As expected, he has been called a bigot and a misogynist. The motion attracted "a lot of ire and a lot of anger."

Greens Member for South Brisbane Amy MacMahon said the motion was not about women's rights but about misogyny.

But a poll run by the Courier Mail shows that 94% of Australians agree with Robbie Katter on this. It is the Labor Party that are not onside with the Australian people on this issue.

Will Anthony Albanese call on his QLD comrades to do the right thing and vote for women to be protected?
