2022 NATIONAL MOTHER OF THE YEAR AWARDS LAUNCHED TODAY

FamilyVoice Australia is pleased to announce the continuation of the National Mother of the Year Awards, to coincide with International Women's Day (March 11).

The National Mother of the Year Awards was launched today on radio station 2GB on the Ben Fordham show.

"FamilyVoice has always supported the belief of recognising the maternal service and sacrifice mothers make as an integral part of the natural* family unit," said Greg Bondar, national coordinator for the awards.

Mothers are an amazing group of people, changing the world in a variety of ways every single day. From volunteering in classrooms to testifying in the public arena, mums are making a difference in their communities, workplace, churches, and beyond.

"FamilyVoice wants to continue the tradition of recognising outstanding mothers who are passionate about making the world a better place for children and families and for the benefit of the next generation," added Mr Bondar.
