Gay Mardi Gras Fosters the 'Sexular' Age

How ironic that an event created more than forty years ago to promote so-called equality and end discrimination has now evolved into something that celebrates and promotes discrimination and the mockery of anything Christian.

Families are suffering loss of property, possessions, and self-worth with the devastating floods which have wreaked havoc for weeks so would it not be appropriate for the Gay Mardi Gras to be postponed, or even better cancelled, in recognition of the grieving families affected by the floods?

"The Gay Mardi Gras is nothing more than a return to the age of orgies as evidenced under the eponymous Roman Emperor Caligula," said Greg Bondar, FamilyVoice spokesman.

Any individual or corporate support for the Gay Mardi Gras is a slap in the face of natural families consisting of biological males and females.

FamilyVoice urges all Mums and Dads to protect their children from an event that to Christians is nothing more than an exhibition of sexual immorality and a furthering sadly of the 'Sexular' movement.
