Dan Andrews' bizarre behaviour

Dan Andrews should be focussed on the budget and not pushing drag queens on kids, says FamilyVoice Australia.

“Instead of being focussed on rectifying Victoria’s shot finances, Dan’s hanging out with drag queens,” said FamilyVoice gender spokesman David d’Lima.

Victoria’s debt is projected to be $165.9bn by 2025-26.

“With the dire state of the Victorian economy it’s bizarre that Dan Andrews is hosting a drag queen story time in Parliament,” said d’Lima.

“Why is pushing this harmful ideology on kids a priority for the Premier? He should be fixing the economic problems he has created.”
