Homosexual walk cost a million dollars

Christian advocacy group FamilyVoice Australia is appalled at the expense of the recent closure of Sydney Harbour Bridge for a Pride walk.

The World Pride March cost a whopping $900,000 to hold.

“Taxpayer money should not be wasted on woke causes,” said FamilyVoice spokesman David d’Lima.

“This is is an obscene waste of money.

“Prime Minister Anthony Albanese needs to explain why he has spent nearly a million dollars on a homosexual walk when families are struggling to pay their mortgages and put food on the table,” said d’Lima.
