Victorian Liberals ‘out of touch with reality’

FamilyVoice Australia says Liberal parliamentarians in Victoria are ‘out of touch with reality’ after the party expelled ‘truth-telling’ MP Moira Deeming earlier today.

“The Liberal Party in Victoria needs to throw out two-thirds of its parliamentary representatives and replace them with people like truth-telling MP Moira Deeming who hold common sense views on gender issues and sexual education,” said FamilyVoice gender spokesman David d’Lima.

“The Liberals will never win government, and do not deserve to be in government, if they keep espousing minority woke policy positions.”
