Where is Australia's Nigel Farage?

FamilyVoice Australia spokesman David d'Lima wants reform of the ABC along the lines promised in the UK by strident politician and broadcaster Nigel Farage.

“Where is Australia's Nigel Farage who will run on a platform of reforming the national broadcaster?” David d'Lima asks.

“Politicians across the political spectrum complain about ABC, but no party has a reformist platform to sort out the problem.

“It's time we had reformist action here in Australia.”

FamilyVoice has long argued that MPs cannot continue spending billions of taxpayer dollars while complaining about bias in the national broadcaster.

“Hopefully Nigel Farage can inspire a reformist party in Australia whose candidates have the courage of their convictions and will sort out the biased broadcaster.”
